

GUIDELINES FOR CONTRIBUTING TO “A PIECE OF GARBAGE”

CALLING ALL ARTISTS! The courage to create is a power to be respected. There is great beauty in things discarded, overlooked and unappreciated. Yet, opinions and judgements can alter a fragile spirit.

In conjunction with the theatrical production Zoe Comes Home, the Delaware Valley Arts Alliance (DVAA) and the Community Tapestry Project are welcoming submission for A Piece of Garbage An assemblage of recyclables and found objects which will serve as the set for the world premiere of Zoe Comes Home, produced and presented by DVAA, at the Tusten Theatre.

Each ARTIST contributed “little” sculpture will be added to the “BIG” sculpture, creating a community vision. Pieces once considered garbage, will be reconstructed and when joined together and evolve into something new and beautiful. The tapestry will be a grand statement on ART & ENVIRONMENT.

Requirements:

- Pieces cannot weight more than 35lbs.
- Pieces need to be durable to withstand the elements and being moved.
- Be mindful of sharp edges!
- DO NOT MOVE another person’s piece without consent.

The call will be open from September 1st – 30th. The drop off location will be a designated publicly marked area located between DVAA and USPO on Main Steet in Narrowsburg.

All participating artists will receive one complimentary ticket to a performance of Zoe Comes Home.

About ZOE COMES HOME

Zoe Comes Home, written by Melissa Bell and directed by Laurie A. Guzda will receive its world premiere at the Tusten Theatre – October 7th & 8th 2022, 7pm. It features Jess Beveridge, Susan Mendoza, Thomas Cambridge, R. Scott Porter.

Zoe Comes Home is a story about mothers and daughters. It’s about an aging woman artist who has been discounted, discarded, and overlooked. It asks how the opinion of one critic who deems her work as “garbage” can alter and affect not just the artist but those closest to her. It celebrates the courage to create with belief in your vision against the haunting demons of doubt can only thrive through the healing power of love.
